CIRCULAR FOR 1866-67.

THE Twenty-Fourth Annual Session of this Institution will open on Wednesday, October 3d, 1866, and continue therefrom, uninterruptedly, sixteen weeks.

The Introductory Address will be delivered by Prof. BRAINARD, in the lower Lecture-Room of the College at 8 o'clock P. M., and the regular course of Lectures will commence the next morning at 9 o'clock.

The means of illustration in the several departments are ample, and the course of instruction is thorough and complete.

For practical Anatomy, the supply of materiel is abundant, and will be furnished to the students at reasonable rates.

The Professor of Physiology will illustrate his department by vivisections, which have proved so essential to successful researches in this interesting branch. In all practicable cases, the experiments upon which the principles of physiology are based will be performed before the Class, and no pains will be spared to thoroughly ground the student in the fundamental facts of this most important part of the medical course.

The Clinical advantages of the College are ample and varied. A large number of patients, afflicted with every variety of disease, are treated at the College Dispensary.

Saturday of every week will be devoted to Surgical operations and Clinical instruction, at which time, indigent persons, who require advice or surgical operations, are attended gratuitously, if they present themselves before the Class.

The Lecturer on Diseases of the Eye and Ear, in addition to his course at the College, will give Clinical instruction twice a-week, at the Chicago Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, which has been enlarged and furnished with all the conveniences necessary for patients with diseases of these organs. Students will have an excellent opportunity of studying diseases of the eye, and of witnessing many operations in ophthalmic surgery.

The Marine Hospital will be accessible to the Class, as in former years.

Four Clinics each week will be given at the City Hospital, which has been opened by the authorities of Cook County since the close of the last session. It is a commodious building, containing about 300 beds, and being filled with patients and attended by an able corps of Physicians and Surgeons, will, in addition to the Marine Hospital, the Chicago Eye and Ear Infirmary, and the College Dispensary, give very abundant Clinical material for the observation of the Class. As far as possible, the post mortem examinations, made under the supervision of HENRY M. LYMAN, M. D., Pathologist of the City Hospital, will be in the presence of the members of the Class.

The advantages derived from these cliniques, consist in the opportunity of witnessing a great variety of surgical operations, and numerous medical cases, and the treatment proper for each.

Students, upon arriving in the city, may call on the Treasurer, Dr. INGALS, at his office, 190 Clark street, or any member of the Faculty, who will give them any needed information as to board, books, lectures, rooms, etc. Those desiring information, by letter, will please address the Secretary, Dr. DELASKIE MILLER, P. O. Drawer 5787.

TEXT BOOKS, ETC.

Students will find a good assortment of medical books and surgical instruments in this city. The following text books, among others, are recommended:

Chemistry.—Fownes, Youmans, Wells.

Anatomy.—Gray, Wilson.

Physiology.—Dalton, Draper, Carpenter.

Materia Medica.—Biddle, Stille, Wood, U. S. Dispensatory.

Medical Jurisprudence.—Taylor, Beck, Wharton and Stille.

Obstetrics.—Hodge, Cazeau, Bedford, Churchill.

Diseases of Women.—Scanzoni, West.

Diseases of Children.—Condie, West, Tanner.

Surgery.—Erichsen, Chelius.

Practice of Medicine.—Wood, Watson. Reference.—Bennett's Clin. Med., Flint, or Walshe, on the Heart, Walshe on the Lungs, Habershon on the Alimentary Canal, Wilson on the Skin, Da Costa or Barclay on Diagnosis, Dickson, Barlow, Maxson, Chambers, Rokitsansky, Jones and Sieveking; Hammond, Military Hygiene.

Surgical Anatomy.—MacLise.

Microscopic Anatomy.—Todd and Bowman, Queckett.

Surgical Pathology.—Paget.

REQUIREMENTS OF GRADUATION.

The following are the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Medicine, viz.:

1st. The candidate must be twenty-one years of age, and give satisfactory evidence of possessing a good moral character.

2d. He must have pursued the study of medicine three years, and attended at least two courses of Lectures, one of which must have been in this Institution. Four years of regular and continued practice will be considered equivalent to one course of Lectures.

3d. He must have attended Clinical Instruction during, at least, one college term.

4th. He must have taken one course of Practical Anatomy.

5th. He must notify the Secretary of the Faculty of his intention to become a candidate, and deliver to him a thesis on some medical subject, written by himself, on or before the 15th of January, and at the same time deposit the graduation fee, which, together with the thesis, will be returned to him in case of withdrawal or rejection.

6th. Every candidate must undergo a full and satisfactory examination on all branches taught in the college, such examinations being made by each Professor separately.

7th. Graduates of other respectable schools of medicine will be entitled to an ad eundem degree, by passing a satisfactory examination, paying the graduation fee, and giving evidence of a good moral and professional character.
